Can you let me know when you will be sending the remainder of the money from the donations?
Thanks.

when ever they get his taxes done I will be sending you 1500 hes having to get everything together to even file them. Soon as i know i will let you know

Maggie Young Kimmel May 7 at 11:32am

Thanks. After that, do you know when the rest will be coming. I have to put them in camp for the summer, etc. How much was the whole thing, I thought it was something like $5,000?

Christina Wise May 7 at 11:49am

I didnt get all that money i told you people backed out! I couldnt put that put there along with the fact all the fees taken out.

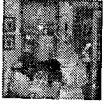

Maggie Young Kimmel May 7 at 12:22pm

That's fucked - how much did the total end up being with the people backing out?

Christina Wise May 7 at 1:06pm

I called jeff at work about this... he told me this is why he didnt want to do auctions because he knew we would get us fucked... he said he will pay the total amount but it will be as he can he cant get us kicked out or our bills not paid but will get you the money when he can.. he says he will cover the paypal fees and all that .. AND he is pissed at me

Maggie Young Kimmel May 7 at 1:18pm

Why would he be mad at you - why not call out all the people who backed out of the auctions - that is the only right thing to do here. How much out of the approx. $5,000 did you get to collect?

Christina Wise May 7 at 1:31pm

because he told me not to do the auction it would end up us owing money always does. Appoxmately around 3300 and we was planning on send you extra money anyhow ... its just all waiting on his taxes everyone who sent money had fees taken out for paypal and i believe it took money out to send to u, I sent all of what we got....except the 1500 which 800 was used to go see his aunt... u told us to go and use it ... and the 700 u said to use so the electricity didnt get shut off

Maggie Young Kimmel May 7 at 2:11pm

If that is what came in, why would you give me money above what you collected? I thought you guys used like $200 to go and see his aunt but whatever - I remember you telling me that you had no choice but to use the $700 because you couldn't get your electric shut off - the $1,500 will be great when you get it because I have to enroll them in camp and I don't have the money to do it. You don't have any idea when he is going to file, do you? I have to go on May 25th to register them.

That's a bunch of shit though - that is a difference of 1,000s of dollars and people can just back out of auctions or not pay or whatever??? I don't want you and Jeff giving any money of your own to me, other than what you used - if people neglected to follow through on their promises, that is not your fault.

It his business taxes it takes a little longer and he is doing 3 years worth and he owes the IRS a bit of money so its taking a bit... I have no clue... yeah we thought was only gonna be 200 but the hotel was 100 a night didnt know it would be that or that family wouldnt let us stay...no room..... and gas and car rental to go was a little more than what we thought I had told you all this .. but yes soon as he gets the 1500 we will get it to u ... I can t do nothing about the back outs no pay ect... I was told if it was brought up at all jeff and I would be banned! because fauna has nothing to do with this and the member did this at there own risks. I am trying to stay away from getting banned so we can keep our business. How much is the camp for the kids... we will do our damndest to get u that asap from our check to get them in camp ... but the rest will have to wait on taxes....

Maggie Young Kimmel May 7 at 2:59pm

The camp is a little over a $1,000 for both of them for 2 months. I don't have the exact number with me, but I know it's $500 something for each. Thanks.

Christina Wise May 7 at 3:09pm

Around here its like 200 a child we was trying to pull getting the 400 he would have to bust his ass to get that. There is no possible way he can make 1000 by the 25. Im sorry

Maggie Young Kimmel May 7 at 3:28pm

Sorry? I don't mean to be a dick and granted, I'm in a really bad mood today, but that is money that people donated to me and my children because my husband died and to help us out. Not to help you guys travel to a funeral (which yes, I said you could use because I felt so bad) and pay your utility bills. The money that was donated to help me and my family is now not available when I need the help? I HAVE to put my kids in camp for the summer because Charles would have been the one that watched them and now he is gone and I have no one to watch 3 kids each day for the entire summer.

Chris, you used $700 to pay your electric bill and you never even asked me first. You told me after the fact, that is not fair and not a friend thing to do. I desperately need that money to put my kids in camp and it has to be done by May 25th - not what am I supposed to do?
